BIT Presents Musical Play

"Kismet," a popular Broadway production of the 1950's, will open at West Texas State University May 5 for an 8-night run in the Branding Iron Theatre.

Royal Brantley, on leave of absence from WT in 1964, will direct the WTSU Opera and Musical Workshop. The workshop has produced such sell-out hits as "The King and I," "Guys and Dolls," "My Fair Lady," "Music Man," and "Showboat."

Performances of "Kismet" are slated for May 5, 6, 7, 8, and four shows are scheduled the next week, May 12, 13, 14 and 15.

Curtain time is 8:15 o'clock each evening, and admission is $2.50 for adults, and $1.50 for public school students and children. WTSU student admission is by activity tickets.

Reservations are available from the box office of the BIT, which will be open daily from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. beginning Monday.

Mail order requests for reservations should be directed to the Department of Speech.

Assisting Brantley will be William A. and Margaret Moore as state directors, Elsa Porter as chorus mistress, Neil Hess as choreographer, and Erin Wertenberger as scenic designer and technical director.

Based on the book "Kismet" by Edward Knoblock, the musical play was written by Charles Lederer and Luther Davis.

The play was produced on Broadway in the 1920's.

The song-filled production features such well-known melodies as "Stranger in Paradise," "My Beloved," "Sands of Time," and "Baubles, Bangles, and Beads."

Gary Brundidge of Corpus Christi will play the leading role of the beggar poet. Other cast members include Jearl Nichols of Canyon as the Caliph of Baghdad, Mila Beth Gibson of Sweetwater as Marskinah, Kenneth Betzen of Hereford as Wazir, and Jean Gray of Pampa as Lalume.

Jerry Curry of Levelland will portray Imam of the Mosque, Gary Tydings of Amarillo will be Omar Khayyam, Bob King of Dozier as Jawan, and Wes Schultz of White Deer as Wazir's henchman.

LL Tryouts Saturday

Boys 10 to 12 years old will tryout for Little League major teams Saturday afternoon beginning at 1 o'clock.

Richmond Hales, president of LL, said all boys should meet at the Little League field Saturday with their parents.

Youngsters who will be participating in the Cub Scout Webelos day activities Saturday will tryout for the teams Friday evening at 5:30 o'clock.

"Only those boys who will be participating in the Cub Scout functions will be allowed to tryout Friday," Hales said.

Four teams are in the major league division of LL. Boys younger than 10 years will be placed on minor league teams, according to Hales.

YD Rally Saturday

H.M. Baggarly, editor of The Tulia Herald, will be principal speaker at a Democratic Party rally to be held here Saturday night.

The rally will be held at 7:30 o'clock at the Randall County Junior Livestock Building, according to Sam Golden Young Democratic committeeman for the 18th Congressional District.

The rally is being sponsored by the Young Democrats organization.

David Matthis, professor of government at West Texas State University, will be master of ceremonies for the rally.

Women and girls will bring lunch boxes which will be auctioned to raise funds for use by Young Democrats. Golden said proceeds will be divided equally among official Young Democrat Clubs of the Panhandle which have at least three couples attending the rally.

Art Gallery Opens Doors

Canyon Art Gallery, under directorship of Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Cornette, will open officially next Monday, April 26.

During the opening week, through May 1, the gallery will observe special evening hours, from 7-10 p.m., to give persons from throughout the area an opportunity to visit the new gallery.

Following the opening week, hours will be from 9:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. daily, and Friday evenings from 7 to 9. The gallery will not be open on Sunday.

Those who have aided Mrs. Cornette in planning and development will be special guests during the opening week.

They include Dr. and Mrs. Emilio Caballero, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Henson, Mrs. Clyde Warwick, Mr. and Mrs. Boone McClure, Mrs. Harold Bugbee, Mr. and Mrs. Levi Cole, Mrs. R.A. Neblett, Dr. and Mrs. L. F. Sheffy, Mr. and Mrs. Tom C. Gooch, Dr. and Mrs. E.J. Cundiff, Mr. and Mrs. J.M. White, Dr. Leta Boswell, Miss Mildred Lawson of Nashville, Tennessee, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Cornette of White Deer, and Dr. James P. Cornette.

The new gallery features 2,400 square feet of floor space, three-fourths of which are devoted to display. The building is fireproof, dustproof, and equipped with year-round temperature and humidity controls.

Displays of representational and traditional art, rather than abstract art, will be featured.

Although some color etchings by the late Luigi Kasimir, along with pieces of sculpture will be shown, most exhibits at the gallery will consist of oil and water color compositions. Most of the work displayed will be for sale.

Exhibits at the Canyon Art Gallery will primarily be Southwestern artists, both established professionals and amateurs. Raymond Reynolds, Canyon artist, who recently held a one-man show at West Texas State University, will exhibit several pen and ink compositions.

Mrs. Cornette also plans to bring in work from other areas of the United States and foreign countries on a consignment basis.

Randall Sinking Fund Low

Commissioners court next Monday will make a decision on the future of Randall County's tax structure.

Taxes were discussed at this week's meeting of the court but action was deferred until next week. Bill Money, tax assessor-collector, put in an appearance at the court meeting Monday and wanted to know what tax rate the court plans to set.

"It seems to me that we must have a change in the sinking fund," observed Commissioner Glenn Dowlen.

Commissioner Clarence Beckman said the sinking fund should have something more than $70,000 in it. Currently there is $36,463.44 in that fund.

Last year the taxable valuation of the county was $34,-910,470. This figure should be up this year, according to one tax office official.

For the past two years the county tax has been levied on a basis of 12 1/2 percent of actual value. The county ad valorem tax rate is $1.45 per $100 valuation and the state tax is 42 cents.

"We don't know what either one of them will be this year," said a tax office official. "They're still wrangling about it down in Austin."

The court authorized the tax office to advertise for bids for two new typewriters.

Commissioners approved plats for extension of Pioneer Estates Addition Number 5 and for Ponderosa Addition Number 2.

The court accepted a Stevenson Pontiac bid on a new car for the sheriff's department. The Stevenson bid was $3,975 on a car meeting required specifications. The bid allowed $2,380 in trade for an old sheriff's department car.

COVERING FUMBLES

by Dean Mitch Jones

I watched with detachment the milling crowd up and down Bourban Street and wondered why all those fools were there; —when suddenly I realized that I was one of them!

Broom Sale Starts Today

The sale truck will be parked in front of the Olympic Theater on the square and eight teams of Lions Club members will make door-to-door sales over town.

Profits from the sale will be used for club projects.

All merchandise is manufactured by blind people who make their living in this manner.

Crusade Brings $1500

Mrs. Sara Thompson, chairman of the door-to-door campaign, said $1258.61 was collected house-to-house. Jody Sheets, Canyon High School senior, said some $55 was collected in the public schools.

The remainder of the total came from Canyon businesses and rural areas, according to Jack Haley and John Brazzil, chairmen of the sections.

Workers in the door-to-door drive included Mrs. Bob Brotherton, Mrs. E.M. Boston, Mrs. Johnnie McBroom, Mrs. E.T. Cummings, Mrs. Maxter Lambert, Mrs. Joe Crawley, Mrs. Bill Money, Mrs. Edwin Kuehn, Mrs. Weldon Hager, Mrs. Victor Hill, Mrs. Marcus Adair, Jere Sink, Philip Barlow, Mrs. Claude Moore and Mrs. Gene Morrison.

State 4-H Official In Canyon

County agents and home demonstration agents from five counties were in Canyon Wednesday for a 4-H workshop.

Conducting the workshop was Marshall Crouch, assistant state 4-H Club leader from College Station.

Attending were county agents and home demonstration agents from Randall, Potter, Deaf Smith, Castro and Parmer Counties.

The training session dealt with 4-H awards and record keeping.

Open WTSU Bids May 4

Bids will be opened May 4 for some $800,000 worth of construction on the West Texas State University campus.

University Comptroller Virgil Henson said bids will be opened at 2 o'clock on that date for construction of the Killgore Research Center and a new Applied Science Building.

The research center will be built at an approximate cost of $500,000. The Applied Science Building, which will house the agriculture and industrial education departments, will cost in the neighborhood of $300,-000.

Henson said construction on the two new buildings will begin almost immediately.

An addition to the library costing about $300,000 is scheduled to get under way in August.

Henson said the new construction is in keeping with a campus master plan approved by the board of regents at its fall meeting held here in October of 1963.

Plans call for the first stage of a four-story addition to the Panhandle-Plains Museum to get under way in the near future.

Casting of lots for Christ's robe was portrayed in one of the tableaus depicting Biblical scenes of Easter, Sunday morning at Sunrise Services. Here in the roles of three Roman soldiers are, from left, Gary Cook, Charles Starnes, and Gayland Gatten. The services, sponsored by Canyon Christian Youth Council, drew some 1500 persons from the area.

Huge Crowds Visit Here At Easter

Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum and the Palo Duro Canyon State Park showed that record-breaking crowds streamed through Canyon during the Easter holidays.

Boone McClure, museum curator, said a total of 1865 persons viewed the museum during the four-day period of Friday, Saturday, Sunday and Monday.

The museum figures show that 230 persons visited Friday, 370 on Saturday, 1038 on Sunday, and 227 Monday.

This brings the month's total to 5,637 and the year's total to 22,671.

At Palo Duro Canyon, some 5,000 cars were admitted to the park Friday through Monday. Park officials said the number was up for Friday and Saturday, over the same period of the Easter weekend in 1964. About 2,900 cars were driven through the park gate Sunday. This figure is a little below last year's Easter Sunday total.

Park officials also noted that some five persons are estimated for each car.

WT Forensic Group Wins In Tourney

West Texas State University forensics fraternity earned the certificate of excellence last week at the national convention and tournament of Pi Kappa Delta.

The certificate was the top award presented during the activities held in Tacoma, Washington.

The WT Pi Kappa Delta chapter was the only representative of Texas colleges and universities, and one of 15 in the nation to receive the certificate, according to forensics coach Gene Lewis.

More than 130 colleges from over the nation were represented at the tournament, Lewis said.

All team members had to qualify in some field of forensics to earn the excellence designation. From WT, John Greene of Amarillo qualified in discussion; Mary Lemmond of Avery and Don Akin of Fort Worth, in oratory and debate; Cliff Humphrey of Amarillo in debate; and Bill Miller of Amarillo, in extemporaneous speaking and debate.

Randell Carver of Hereford was the official delegate representing WT at the convention.

Pioneer Amphitheater Open House Is Sunday

An open house of the Pioneer Amphitheatre in Palo Duro Canyon State Park will be held from 7-9 o'clock Sunday night, April 25.

Texas Panhandle Heritage Foundation board of directors is sponsoring the affair.

Main attraction during the evening will be a tour of a recently completed sound and light control building.

The building is upheld by concrete pillars and can be reached by a small circular staircase. Two storage entry rooms, a large central control room, and a sound proofed narrator's room make up the building.

A large control board is mounted in a movable desk unit beside large sliding glass panels. The board is constructed on tracks which will allow the whole unit to slide outdoors, enabling the operator to hear sound effects as they occur on stage.

Mrs. Ples Harper, Panhandle Heritage Foundation president, said, "It is also possible to control the show with the panels closed, so that the equipment can be used and protected at the same time. With this arrangement, light and sound shows can be given in inclement weather."

An historical wall, a special feature of the theatre, will be located beneath the light and sound building under a rain shelter.

Sound and light equipment, all designed for the theatre, will be in operation for the open house Sunday.

"The open house Sunday will be the only time when visitors will have an opportunity to inspect the light and sound building and installation while the equipment is in operation," Mrs. Harper explained. "The public is invited to come and see how the wonderful effects are achieved."

No charge will be made except the usual park entrance fee.

Wheat Prospects Not Good

Prospects for dryland wheat are something less than good, according to John Brazzil, county agent.

"More of it is getting 'harvested' by dry weather every day," Brazzil declared Wednesday.

Some wheat is looking good to fair in the southeast part of the county where rainfall has been heavier, he declared. The county agent said irrigated wheat is "looking good."

There have been a few insects, wheat mites and greenbugs, but these have posed no problem, according to Brazzil.

Injured Cat Taken By Motorist

Betty Rogers, an employe in the Randall County district clerk's office, complained this week that her Siamese Cat, Puddin Head, was taken by a Good Samaratin motorist Monday.

She said that according to neighbors someone ran over the cat in front of the Rogers home at 1305 Eighth Avenue Monday morning. The cat was hurt.

The motorist inquired about the injured feline and then drove off with the cat when he could find no one to claim it.

"I want my cat back," Betty lamented.

Cox Plans FFA European Tour

George Cox, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Cox, will spend 28 days in Europe this summer.

Cox, Canyon High School senior, will leave from New York City June 8 on a Goodwill People-To-People Tour.

Fifteen Texas Future Farmers of America will be among other high school FFA members from throughout the United States for the tour.

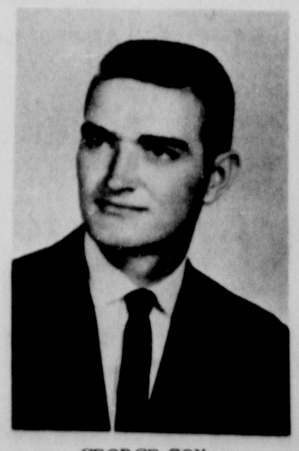

Before leaving the states in June, the group will spend two days viewing New York City. They will visit the World's Fair and receive a briefing concerning the countries they will visit overseas.

From New York the touring group will fly to London, England. Other countries included on the tour are Scotland, Holland, Denmark, Sweden, Norway, West Germany, East Germany, Poland, Hungary, and Ugoslavia.

"I'm anxious to vist the countries behind the Iron Curtain," Cox pointed out. "And we will be greeted in each country by the ambassador or consul to that country."

Cox explained the purpose of the program is to let FFA members from the United States view various other forms of agriculture and to meet persons who are engaged in the agricultural field.

"We will see how crops are raised in other countries and we will meet youths who are interested in farming," Cox pointed out.

FROM THE CANYON RIM

It's a little known fact, but one of the first times troops ever stood by to put down race violence was not in the deep South but in the Northern city of Detroit.

That was in the early years of World War II. Violence flared in the auto city and as we remember, some half-dozen people were killed in fighting between Negroes and Whites.

Air Force troops stood by at nearby Selfrige Field for possible riot duty. We were in Detroit shortly afterward and from there we were assigned to overseas duty. It was still the talk of the base at the time we arrived.

Detroit was the home of a civil rights marcher killed recently in Alabama.

We were sorry to hear of the death of Mrs. Viola Liuzzo which came as a climax to the Selma to Montgomery march, pulled off as a publicity and fund-raising scheme by Martin Luther King. However, when we read that her husband wanted to build a wall around Alabama, we couldn't help remembering Detroit and wondering how he would feel about a wall around his hometown.

Also, we noted that Mister Liuzzo is an official of Jimmy Hoffa's Teamster's Union. If newspaper and Justice Department accounts are to be believed, the Teamster's Union is no stranger to violence.

We feel impelled to point out that had Mrs. Liuzzo been at home, urging her husband to fight for justice in the Teamster's Union in which he apparently has some influence, her tragic death on the Selma to Montgomery highway could have been avoided.

This is not to say that Mrs. Liuzzo did not have a right to be in Alabama. Neither is it meant to imply that she deserved to be shot to death as she was because she was there.

Justice should be dispensed with all haste to those responsible for her death.

If Mrs. Liuzzo was sincerely interested in justice, we believe she made the same mistake made by many people who say they fight for the preservation of Constitutional government.

Mrs. Liuzzo would have done well to have used her influence for the sake of justice in her husband's trade union. She chose to go to Alabama.

The basic need for securing justice and maintaining Constitutional government is at the grass roots.

People who want constitutional government would do well to make their influence felt in their own communities. Instead, many of them seem to be looking for some magical button they can push and convert the federal government into what they think it should be. No such button exists.

There was almost no interest in the recent city election here in Canyon. It is hard to find candidates for city offices.

Interest in the recent school board election was meager. There is seldom a spirited contest even for county offices.

City and county governments are training grounds for those who would assume more responsibility in state and national government.

If we are so little concerned with local government, how can we expect good state and national government to materialize out of such a void.

***

Progress is in the air here at Canyon. The community is going to get at least one new industry in the near future. An announcement will be ready on that one in about two weeks.

Also some important building contracts are about to be let at West Texas State.

We understand there is a bare possibility that the biggest atom cracking device in the world might be built at Amarillo Air Force Base.

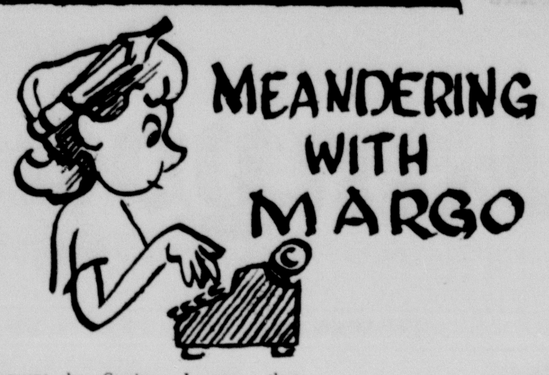

There are a lot of arguments for building it there. It is about equal distance from both coasts. There is a plentifuly supply of liquid helium nearby.

If this comes to reality, it could mean more to the area economically than Amarillo Air Force Base ever has and the potential in furthering research at West Texas State could be great indeed.

Meeting Set

A meeting of Randall County Framers Union will be held the evening of May 6 in Randall County Junior Livestock Building.

The group will hear a report from Earl Lamb who is on a trip to Washington, D.C., on business of the organization.

It must be Spring. I can always tell by the ridiculous decisions I make this time of year.

For instance. . .I just "had" to ride a horse during the Easter vacation week end. And guess who's paying for it now.

The horses looked so gentle (and that could very well be an understatement), and I mustered up enough courage to venture atop the saddle.

My efforts to push the horse into a gentle trot were futile as we left the barns. Slowly the old nag followed the trail and I bounced along hanging onto the reins.

As the hour drew to a close and we headed back to the barns, I was practically begging my old pal, the horse, to slow down. In fact, I would have given up my position on the horse for a leisurely walk.

But nothing doing. That horse had smelled the oats and away we went. Across gullies, around curves, over rocks. My goodness, by the time we reached the barn stalls, I was a wreck.

And by the next morning, I felt extremely lucky when I was able to get out of bed.

Earl Reynolds and R.B. Allen (members of the Randall County Sheriff's Posse) have promised that I could go along on the next horseback outing of the club. However, after my week end, I believe I'll leave the riding up to more hearty individuals.

Also spent a day in El Paso, Texas last week end, and found that the "international" city is quite beautiful.

After several hours walking through Juarez, Mexico, hearing merchants urge customers into their shops (and after several of those merchants had talked me out of some money for merchandise), I was ready for an extended drive through El Paso.

Residential sections are being constructed in outlying areas of El Paso, and the remarkable thing about the city's growth is the way it is being done.

Sides of mountains are being dynamited out, leveled off and homes are sprouting up. Developments are nestled in between mountain walls, and most homes have fences around the back so playing children won't fall off the cliff which is directly behind the houses.

I was pleasantly surprised at the beauty and glamor that surrounds El Paso.

Returning home Sunday from New Mexico, we stopped off for a look at the Bottomless Lakes near Roswell.

The legend holds that no bottom can be found in at least one of the lakes. Divers and cables have been sent down repeatedly, but the lakes' secrets are still unknown.

The lakes were a beautiful green, and one of the larger ones was filled with early summer swimmers.

None of the ponds were large enough for motor boats, but tourists could rent small row boats and water bikes--and most of them were doing just that.

After you have visited the many choice spots in the Texas Panhandle, I recommend a visit to New Mexico and on down to southwest Texas.

HHS Banquet Is Saturday

Happy High School Athletic Banquet will be Saturday night at 7:30 o'clock, in the school cafeteria.

Mrs. Otis Holliday of Pampa will be guest speaker. Mrs. Holliday is the wife of the former Pampa head football coach.

An Athletic Queen will be crowned during evening ceremonies.

Saturday, May 1, the Happy Junior-Senior banquet will be held at 7:30 p.m.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear Sir:

George C. Wallace, Governor of Alabama, has been called a "racist," a "radical," and many other names for referring to King as an "insincere man" and a "publicity seeker."

Former President Harry S. Truman in two recent press conferences has called the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. a "troublemaker," a "rabble-rouser," and also stated that he acted like a "damn fool." J. Edgar Hoover, Director of the FBI, called the Nobel Peace Prize winner "the most notorious liar in the country" in a recent press conference a short time ago. President Johnson called King's proposed economic boycott of Alabama "unwise" and said that it would hurt the good people of Alabama as well as the bad.

In all fairness, if Wallace is to be called a "racist," a "bigot," a "radical," then by all means Hoover should also be called a radical, Truman a bigot, and President Johnson a racist.

King's sincerity has been questioned mainly because Alabama's population is approximately 40% Negro; thus 40% of the effectiveness of the economic boycott will be a direct slap at King's own people. If successful, the boycott in the end will indubitably result in complete educational and economic chaos in Alabama and will prove to be more detrimental to the impoverished Negroes in Alabama than to anyone else.

Sincerely,
Eric Corbyn

Two Charges Filed Here

Two cases have been filed in county court during the last week.

Thomas Lowell Burleson, 57 years old, Lubbock, has been charged with driving while intoxicated. He entered a plea of not guilty and his bond was set at $500 by County Judge Lloyd King.

Galen Alfred Thompson, 40, Amarillo, entered a plea of not guilty to charges of driving while intoxicated. His bond also was set at $500.

Higgins Signs With Buffaloes

Tommy Higgins, Canyon High School basketball star, signed with the West Texas State University Buff cagers Monday evening.

Jimmy Viramontes, head basketball coach at WT, signed Higgins, 6-3 1/2 senior.

Higgins averaged 14 points per game during the 1964-65 season. He was named to the all-district team and was captain of the Canyon Eagle team this year.

He was also chosen as Most Valuable Player of the team and is presently serving as treasurer of the "C" Club.

Tommy is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Higgins of Canyon.

Viramontes also announced the signing of three other players for WT.

Morris, 5-9 1/2 All-Around Athlete, averaged 27 points per game and was captain of the high school team the last two years.

He was chosen to all-district and all-state, and is an honor student at Quail.

"He is one of the few players his height that can dunk the ball," Viramontes explained. "He looks like a very good boy, and we are glad to have him join us."

The second boy is Bill Reeves, who attended Raymondville High School.

Reeves, presently a sophomore at DelMar Junior College, stands 6-4 and weighs 190 pounds.

"He scored his most points against the University of Houston with 30 points," Viramontes said.

Reeves' average is 15 points per game. He is a pre-med major.

"He is a junior and will be ready for the varsity," the mentor said.

Velton Franklin, brother of WT cager Wallace Franklin, has also been signed.

Franklin, 6-0, is a guard from Lamesa. He has an average of 19 points per game.

"Franklin is a tremendous athlete," Viramontes said. "He has exceptional speed and is a fine play maker."

Higgins, Morris, Reeves and Franklin join Harvey Young of House, Gary Sikes of Pampa, and Dennis Cothen of Dumas who were signed last week by WT.

TOMMY HIGGINS, seated left, signs a letter of intent to the West Texas State University Buff cagers as WT head coach Jimmy Viramontes, left, and Mr. and Mrs. Dan Higgins watch. Higgins, a Canyon High senior, was named to the all-district team this year and was captain of the 1964-65 Eagle team.

West Texas State opens its track season this Saturday at the McMurry Invitational Meet in Abilene. Six other schools, in addition to the host school, have entered athletes.

Two former Texas high school champions will compete for the Buffaloes. They are James Cowell, who won 880 titles in 1961 and 1962 while running for Dimmitt, and Don Dennis, who copped the AAAA 100-yard dash title for Dallas Lincoln in 1962.

Track coach C.E. "Dirk" Dierking announced he would take the following athletes, Cowell in the 440, mile relay, broad jump; Dennis in the sprint relay, 100' Clark Harrington in the sprint relay, 100, 220; Harvey Colston in the 100, 220, broad jump; Tom Moody in the 120 highs, 330 intermediates, high jump; Dave Shellabarger in the sprint relay, 100, 220, high jump; Jim Young in the 440, mile relay; Ted Allen in the 440, mile relay; Ted Wheeler in the 440, mile relay, high jump; Don Tardy in the 220; John Low in the 880; James Pope, shot; Barry Johncour, discus; and Gene Browning, sprint relay, broad jump.

Lamb Attends Washington Conference

Earl Lamb represented Randall County Farmer's Union and businessmen April 12-13 at congressional meetings in Washington, D.C.

Ten representatives from the state of Texas comprised the party of delegates which visited in the offices of the House agriculture committee and spoke to congressman from their own districts.

Cub Scouts

Refreshments were served by Larry Hunnicutt to Bobby Boyett, Kenneth Wolfington, David May, Bobby Lindsey, Steven Brock, Ronnie Branum, and John Boone, as well as to Mike Branum and Rev. Boyett.

Mr. and Mrs. David Olson were in Lamesa Sunday to visit with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Olson and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lauderdale, other relatives and friends.

Scoutmaster, JLT Course April 23-24

Scoutmasters and junior leaders in Randall District, Boy Scouts of America will attend a training course this week end at Camp Don Harrington.

The course will be held April 23-24, and will include outdoor program, hikes, campouts, junior leaders training and scoutcraft skills.

Leaders will begin the two day meeting at 4 p.m. Friday, with registration. Prior to separate meetings for scoutmasters and junior leaders at 7:30, the representatives will visit a demonstration camp, set up camp, and have supper.

At 7:30 p.m. Friday evening, adult leaders will discuss training of Junior Leaders in the patrol method, and outdoor program, while junior leaders have a program on patrol methods, campfire and night projects.

Saturday morning, sessions will begin at 9 a.m. with separate sessions of delegates. Prior to the 9 a.m. meetings, representatives will have breakfast and camp inspection.

Adult leaders will discuss the outdoor program in another phase, beginning at 9 a.m., while junior leaders learn how to teach skills and have second class skills events.

Cooking skills will be discussed from 12:15 until 1:15, followed by First class skills events for both groups until 3:30.

A scout craft rally will last from 3:45-4:45 p.m. with closing ceremonies planned for 4:45 p.m.

Those who are unable to attend the sessions Friday evening are urged to attend the Saturday meetings, according to Louis Machuca, district scout executive.

The week end sessions are planned to give patrol leaders and senior patrol leaders the opportunity to learn how to do and how to teach Scouting skills through participation in patrol activities.

Each troop's leaders will camp together and should bring their own supper for Friday and food and cooking equipment for Saturday breakfast.

Adults attending and participating will receive credit for the Showando, the outdoor program, and training of junior leaders in the patrol method, all required training for the Scoutmaster's Key.

Randall District scouters will be participating with scouts from two other districts in Llano Estacado Council, Tierra Blanca, which includes Hereford and Adrian, and Palo Duro in Amarillo.

Capers Graduate Students

A total of 11 couples of students received graduation diplomas, and joined with other Caper members to dance with club guests from Reddy Squares and Chiefs and Squaws of Amarillo. Nine squares of dancers participated.

Nominating committee of the group presented a list of officers to the group. They will be elected May 3, and take office June 1. Members must have paid April dues in order to vote, noted Mrs. Truman Freeman, spokesman for the club.

Relatives Have Easter Camp-Out

A week end camp-out at Six Gun City entertained Mr. and Mrs. Floyd T. Kiser and several relatives including Mr. and Mrs. E.P. Harding, also of Canyon.

Other guests attending the Easter gathering were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Jones of Morse, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Walker, Jr. of Wheeler, and Dwayne Kiser of Amarillo.

302 STORM PROOF Cotton
New Vigor—Yield—Quality

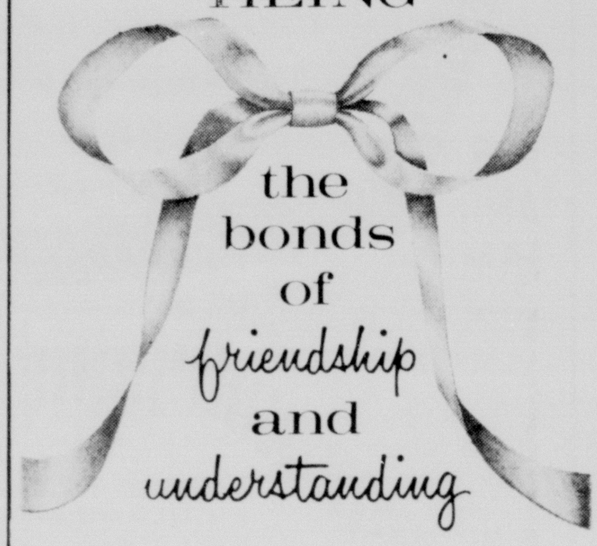

● Here's a strain-cross developed especially for areas where a definite storm proof boll is desired. Medium height, erect plants have short branches and great uniformity. Hybrid vigor makes 302 somewhat earlier than standard storm proof varieties. DeKalb tests show substantial increases in lint yield over most popular varieties, under both irrigation and favorable dryland conditions. Be sure to try this fine variety.

"DEKALB" is a Registered Brand Name. Numbers are Variety Designations.

'Curley' Myers Resigns Farm Bureau Post

Randall County Farm Bureau announces the recent retirement of T.J. "Curley" Myers from Texas Farm Bureau Insurance Companies.

Myers requested a relief of duties as service agent at the April board meeting. His resignation became effective April 20th.

Coming to Randall County in 1902 at the age of three, Mr. Myers was educated in Canyon Public Schools. With the exception of 1938, Mr. Myers has been a resident of Randall County since first arriving.

He became a charter member of the Randall County Farm Bureau when it was organized in 1935 and served as secretary during the early years.

In 1953, Mr. Myers gave up his farming interests to fulfill his appointment as service agent of the Randall County Farm Bureau. He served as general agent until June 1962 when he asked to be relieved of his responsibility due to health. He continued to fulfill his job as special agent until his recent resignation.

Mr. Myers and his wife, Vivian, will remain in Canyon and plan to continue business interests in the area.

Cub Scouts' Webelos Day On Saturday

All Cub Scouts ten and one-half years old will participate in a Webelos Day, Saturday, April 24, at Camp Don Harrington.

Each boy, accompanied by his father or Webelos den leader, will be given a preview of activities offered to boy Scouts.

Each person attending is requested to bring a sack lunch for the noon meal.

The one-day session is scheduled to begin at 9:30 a.m., under the direction of Louis Machuca, district scout executive.

The program centers around three areas of interest to prospective boy scouts, competitive event, Scoutcraft demonstration, and outdoor projects.

In addition to Cubs from the 5 packs in Randall district, which includes Canyon and Happy, Cubs from Tierra Blanca District in Hereford and Adrian, and Palo Duro District, Amarillo, will also participate.

The day's program, which will include demonstrations and projects on nature, "ropeyard"--showing different types of knots, cooking, camping, and Indian dancing, is under the direction of Randy Warren, junior assistant scoutmaster of Troop 31.

Assisting Warren with the demonstration and projects are John Warren, nature, Mike LaGrone, ropeyard, Stoney Ormsby, cooking, Mike Branum, camping, and Mark Raillard, Indian dancing.

Girl Scouts

Eager Beavers patrol of Girl Scout troop 14 listened to recordings based on dance rhythms at their meeting Friday, April 9, as a requirement for the dancing badge.

Mrs. Billy Hill, troop leader, was hostess for the meeting. Claire Daugherty served refreshments to Iva Jeanne Hill, Ann Dooley, Beverly Banks, Elizabeth Zachry, Debra Albers, Kim Tully, Claire Daugherty, and Karen Malzahn.

Mr. and Mrs. E.J. Kinslow of South Plains visited with their son, Bary Kinslow, and family Easter week end.

INSURE CROPS AGAINST HAIL

WHAT CAN CROP-HAIL INSURANCE DO FOR YOU?

1. INSURES AGAINST LOSS TO BASIC FARM INCOME
Your basic income is your crops. If they're lost, you lose income. If they're protected by Crop-Hail insurance, however, your income is safe and more secure.

2. INSURES AGAINST NATURE'S MOST DESTRUCTIVE PERILS
Nothing is more damaging to crops than a sudden hailstorm. But our policy doesn't stop protecting there-it goes on to cover additional perils; according to the insured crop. We can give you full particulars.

3. PROVIDES FULL SEASON COVERAGE
Ask us about this "FULL SEASON COVERAGE" for your crops.

4. INCREASES COLLATERAL WHEN OBTAINING A LOAN
Because your income is more stable, financing for working capital is easier to obtain.

5. ENABLES YOU TO RETAIN A FLUID FINANCIAL POSITION
You will find it unnecessary to freeze a large part of your ready cash as a contingency against a "hail" emergency.

6. PROVIDES SECURITY AND PEACE OF MIND
You will rest easier at night knowing that you are fully protected. Should the unexpected happen, you are ready.

Mysterious Egg

Karen, 10, and Kevon Petitt, 8, children of Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Gunter, awoke early Easter morning to hunt eggs, and discovered an unusual object in the back yard. The large pink egg plainly reads, "From the Phantom Easter Bunny," "Happy Easter," one Easter present which proved to be rather startling, not only from the youngsters' viewpoint, but also from mom and dad's. Funny thing about that egg, no one knows where it came from--maybe from the Easter bunny?

Meet Wednesday

WT Hosts Trade Seminar

First International Trade Seminar at West Texas State University Wednesday, April 28, will delve into the possibilities of increasing foreign exports by business and industry of the Tri-State region.

The program opens at 8:15 a.m. with registration in the Student Union Building, and a general session will open in the ballroom at 9 a.m. Keynote speaker is George A. Smith, Jr., president of the Central Station Alarm Company of Dallas.

Sponsors of the seminar are the U.S. Department of Commerce and the Amarillo and Canyon Chambers of Commerce. Dr. T.J. Leonard, associate professor of government at WTSU, is coordinator of the seminar.

A panel at 10:15 a.m. will discuss "How We Develop Export Trade," and members are N.B. Graham, Graham Plow Company; George Denton, Old Scratch Manufacturing Company, Inc.; Darwin Metcalf, Taylor-Evans Seed Company; George Jones, Producers Grain Corporation; and Wade Cannon, International Business Machines.

George M.J. Elliott, consul-general of Belgium, from Houston, will speak at 11:15 a.m. on "Trading with the Common Market."

An afternoon session at 1 p.m. will feature three talks. Harry Meyers, field director of the Department of Commerce at Dallas, will speak on "International Programs of the U.S. Department of Commerce."

"Opportunities for Agricultural Export in the Plains" will be discussed by Bill Nelson, executive director of the Grain Sorghum Producers Association in Amarillo.

"Financial Aspects of Foreign Trade" will be the topic of Jerry Miller, instructor in business at WTSU.

Concluding the seminar will be a panel discussion on U.S. trade policy by 12 WTSU students. The panel will cover background information, current trade policy, future trade policy, and vocational opportunities.

Scouts Join Troop At Court Of Honor

Seven boys were invested as tenderfoot scouts in Court of Honor ceremonies held Monday evening by Boy Scout Troop 108.

Presented with their rank and insignia by Dick Ziegler, scoutmaster, and Danny Douglas, assistant scoutmaster, were Mickey Comer, David Gillham, Ricky Ziegler, Brian Stoker, Edwin McBride, Mark Vaughan, and Joe Ziegler.

Carroll Vaughan presented second class advancement to John Larson and Ricky Ziegler. Second class rank is next past tenderfoot and has as its symbol a scroll bearing the Scout motto.

During the Court of Honor, two merit badges were also presented.

Ricky Ziegler, son of the Dick Zieglers, was also named "Scout of the Month" by the troop. The award is based on achievement, advancement, and wearing of correct uniform to troop meetings.

Ricky was presented with a trophy marking his selection and will be the guest of Canyon Rotary Club for luncheon. The troop is under the sponsorship of the Rotary Club.

Boys who have received the award in previous months include Johnny Barrett, Vance Cawthon, Kenny Bacon, Curtis O'Donald and Mustang patrol members.

Merchants Plan Meet April 29

Canyon merchants will meet April 29 to discuss possible business promotions for the city, according to Benny Cooper, chairman of the Business Development Committee of the Chamber of Commerce.

Cooper said the meeting will be held in the American Legion Hall at 10 o'clock Thursday morning, April 29.

The meeting will be the first monthly meeting of local merchants. Coffee will be served.

Grandmother Of Local Woman Dies

Mrs. M.W. George, grandmother of Mrs. R.B. Gist, Jr., died Tuesday morning in Wolfe City, Texas.

Funeral services will be conducted today, Thursday, in Mrs. George's hometown of Ladonia. Burial will follow near Kemp.

Mrs. George was the paternal grandmother of Mrs. Gist. She had been ill several weeks.

Pink And Blue Event Honors Mrs. Dierking

A 'pink and blue' shower honoring Mrs. C. E. 'Dirk' Dierking was held recently in the home of Miss Margo Williams.

The honoree was presented with numerous gifts for the expected arrival and guests were served cake squares decorated with frosting bows, miniature rattles and clothespins. The refreshments were completed with gumdrop pacifiers and coffee.

Guests present for the occasion were Mrs. Brad Castleman, Mrs. Lee Donnell, Mrs. James V. Martin, Mrs. Carl Miller, Miss Phyllis Bonnie, and the honoree, Mrs. Dierking, and Miss Williams, hostess.

200 Youngsters Hunt For Eggs

Winners were Cindy Sexton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Sexton, in the pre-school group, and Karen Sims, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Sims, in the school age group.

Pampa Woman Shows Sculptures

Sculpture by Marion George of Pampa will go on display Sunday in the Fine Arts Building at West Texas State University and will be shown for two weeks, according to Dr. Emilio Caballero, head of the art department.

A reception honoring the artist and her husband will open the show Sunday at 2 p.m.

Among the works to be displayed is a carved life-size panel of St. Matthew, which will be dedicated to the late M. K. Brown of Pampa and will hang in the Episcopal Church in Pampa. Approximately 50 pieces in wood and stone will be shown.

A native of New York City, Mrs. George has studied art at Columbia University, the Art Students League, and the Westchester County Art Center. She received a scholarship to attend North Carolina College and has won various art awards.

Her works have been displayed in New York, Connecticut and in several Texas cities. She has had two one-man shows.

Mrs. George served with the American Red Cross in India during World War II, and she studied oriental art while there. She also spent four years on the Dutch island of Aryba. She has lived in Pampa for the past ten years.

Girl Scouts

Girl Scout troop 9 met at the House of Yarns for work on their Needlecraft badges at their meeting Wednesday, April 7.

Mrs. Jozach Byrd and Mrs. Lewell Johnston assisted girls in their work on the badge, along with the badge consultant, Mrs. R.B. Gist, Jr.

WOW's Hear Diet Plans

A new diet for "fat girls" was presented at last Monday evening's meeting of Win-Over-Weight Club, held in the home of Mrs. L.D. Hunnicutt.

Featured in the diet were glasses of "dehydrated water," "bees' knees," and other low calorie foods.

During the weighing period, three turtles, one pig and five hogs were registered by the chairman.

Next group meeting will be April 26 in the home of Mrs. Dale Brock, at 7:30 p.m.

Cub Scouts

Den 6, Pack 31 took a hike to the east city limits at their meeting last week, observing different stages of growth in plants, in conjunction with their month's theme, "Green Thumb."

Leading the boys were Sam Richard, den chief, and Burl Brim.

Refreshments of Easter Bunny Cakes and punch were served by Jamie Wrather to his special guests, his mother, grandmother, and twin sisters, as well as John Denton, Roy Lee Sparkman, Burl Brim, Jr., Dwight Boothe, and David Kievit.

The boys will participate in Pack meeting, tonight, Thursday, by giving the opening ceremonies. Roy Lee Sparkman will receive advancement to Wolf rank.

MRS. BRUCE FORD KIMERY

Hickox-Kimery Nuptials Read In Phillips Friday

In an evening ceremony read last Friday, April 16, in Phillips Methodist Church, Miss Jo Carol Hickox of Canyon became the bride of Bruce Ford Kimery of Dallas.

Rev. Newton Starnes, pastor of the First Methodist Church in Canyon, read the double ring nuptial vows.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Horace Hickox of Phillips. Kimery is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry De Forrest Kimery of Dallas.

The sanctuary was decorated with garlands of lemon leaves, with tall candelabra, bearing lighted tapers forming an arch as the background for the ceremony.

Mrs. H.L. Wendel, organist, played traditional wedding selections, and accompanied Mrs. David Gibson of Canyon, who presented "God, My Shepherd," and "Calm as the Night." The musical benediction included "The Lord's Prayer."

Mrs. Jim Ezell served her sister as matron of honor.

Bridesmatrons were Mrs. Monte Hulse of Dallas, and Mrs. Steve Hill of Canyon. Miss Fran O'Gorman of Amarillo was bridesmaid.

The attendants were identically attired in floor length gowns of yellow silk organza over taffeta, fashioned in Empire styling, with long tapered sleeves of sheer fabric. Their matching picture hats of nylon tulle were topped with large roses of silk organza. Each carried a long stemmed yellow rose.

Miss Teresa Jane Kimery, of Dallas, sister of the bridegroom, was candlelighter. She wore a floor length gown of pale green peau de soie with a wristlet of white flowers.

Assuming ushering duties were Bill Hickox of Austin, Bill Callarman of Canyon, and Jim Ezell.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a formal gown of white French taffeta, trimmed with Alencon lace medallions, seed pearls, and beading. The bodice featured a portrait neckline and long, tapered sleeves, and the skirt was controlled in front, with side tucking at the waistline falling into a graceful chapel train. Back interest was provided by a bow and sash.

Her veil of French illusion was two tiered and cascaded from a pillbox trimmed with braid and seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of gardenias, stephanotis and yellow roses.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in fellowship hall of the church.

Assisting in the house party were Mrs. Andy Beckner, Mrs. Carl Kemp, Mrs. Lynn Lowe, of Lubbock and Mrs. H.D. Kimery, Jr., of Dallas.

The couple is at home at 2608 Fifth Avenue, Apartment 6 in Canyon.

The bride is a graduate of West Texas State University and is presently teaching at Rex Reeves Elementary School in Canyon. Prior to her January graduation from West Texas State, she was a member of Zeta Tau Alpha sorority and served on the Student Union Board. She was a candidate for homecoming queen in 1963.

Her husband, a senior accounting major at WTSU, is a three year varsity letterman on the Buffalo football team. He is a member of Kappa Alpha Order, Alpha Chi Honor society and Scabbard and Blade honor military fraternity. He is also listed in Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities.

Jaycee-ettes Hear Discussion Of Wills

Gene McGlasson, Canyon attorney, discussed "Wills: Do I Need One?" at the Monday evening meeting of Canyon Jaycee-ettes.

McGlasson spoke to the group meeting in the home of Mrs. Delbert Turk.

During the program, he compared written and holiographic wills and how each is interpreted at the time of their probating.

McGlasson gave several examples in explaining his program, stating, "It is better to have a will and not need it, than not to have one and need it."

Following the program, a short question and answer period was held.

Mrs. Jerry Swaringen, program chairman, presented McGlasson with a gift from the club.

Refreshments of lemon chess pie, cokes, and tea were served to guests at the close of the program. Attending the meeting were Mesdames Allen Parson, Charles Marshall, Jerry Swaringen, Meade Michael, Guy Hamblen, Carl Miller, Larry Hicks, Wayne Edmondson, and Jackie Whitley, as well as the hostess, Mrs. Turk.

Next meeting is planned for May 6 at the home of Mrs. James Foster at 9 a.m.

West Side Women Make Own Gloves

Make your own leather gloves, and have the satisfaction of learning a new handcraft, too.

Sound interesting? Women who belong to home demonstration clubs in Randall County thought so, and have done just that--made their own leather gloves.

The project on glove making was first introduced in Randall County during 1947 by Lou Ella Patterson, then county home demonstration agent.

Mrs. Ed Bourn, one of the students in those first classes in glove making, and a member of West Side Home Demonstration Club, has been helping with instruction during the present campaign of glovemaking.

During her 18 years of making gloves, Mrs. Bourn has made some 30 pairs. Each pair requires approximately one day to cut out and assemble.

West Side Home Demonstration Clubs ordered the leather in skins, which are then stretched. One glove can be cut out of one square foot of leather.

During the stretching process, at least two persons, and usually more, pull on different sides of the leather until it is completely flexible.

All sizes of patterns are available, from the tiniest through men's sizes. Mrs. Bourn owns patterns from size 5 up.

The skins which the club uses for gloves are cape, but deer hide, pigskin, suede, and other types of leather are also available.

Once the skins are stretched, the patterns are laid on the wrong side of the leather, drawn around and then cut out, with scissors.

The gloves are sewn with special leather needles, which have three-cornered points. Thread is waxed with beeswax before the sewing begins.

Once the sewing is started, the only difficult part remaining is putting in the thumb, says Mrs. Bourn. "That's what most people seem to have trouble with, since there is only one way the different parts of the thumb will fit together."

When the gloves are completed, each pair taking about a day, decorative stitching may be placed at the cuff on the back, adding various touches of originality.

"Making gloves is something that anyone can do, and enjoy," added Mrs. Bourn. "We expect that many new pair will be appearing on Canyon's streets any day now; our club alone bought more than $88 worth of leather skins."

Griffins Have Birthday Event

Mr. and Mrs. Rex Griffin honored their sons, Billy and Ross, with a double birthday celebration at the Griffin home last Thursday evening.

Billy was celebrating his 14th birthday and Ross was 11. The cakes featured a deep sea scene and the other one depicted an Indian village.

A double four generation gathering was the highlight of the evening with grandmothers, great-grandmothers, and parents being present on each side of the family. Great-grandmothers attending were Mrs. Myrtle Golden and Mrs. Lillie Guill of Amarillo, grandmothers present were Mr. and Mrs. D.R. Erskin and Mrs. Bill Griffin of Canyon.

Paul, Matt, and Rexann Griffin were in attendance with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rex Griffin, and the honorees Ross and Billy.

Happy Jaycee-ettes Tell New Committees

Committees for the coming year were appointed at the April 13 meeting of Happy Jaycee-ettes.

Named as committee heads were Della Venhaus, Jaycee publicity and publications, Lavenna Jackson, ways and means, Betty Penn, social, Phyllis Bradley; program, Joy Freeman, membership, Mary Stubblefield, telephone, Jimmie Middleton, decorations, Martha Payne, posters, Nell Sims, publicity, and Mary Neal Henry, Jimmie Middleton, Phyllis Bradley, Connie Johnson, and Lavenna Jackson, telephone.

Installed as secretary for 1965-66 by Mary Neal Henry, past president, was Nell Sims.

Mary Ann Magness, president of the Happy chapter, was in charge of the meeting, held in the High School library.

Next meeting is planned for Tuesday, April 27, at 8 p.m. in the American Legion Hall. Mrs. Elsie Collins will give a demonstration on Beauty Counselor Cosmetics.

Recent visitors in the Clee Pond home have been Mrs. Herman Mitchell and Billy Ray, and Mrs. Betty Anderson of Albuquerque, N.M., Mrs. Verna Trout of Ruidoso, N.M., Mr. and Mrs. Rueben Spencer and family of Elk City, Oklahoma, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Dunn of Lawton, Oklahoma, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Londagin, of Tulsa, Oklahoma, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hagar of Gentry, Arkansas, Mr. and Mrs. Nick Schmit of Amarillo, and Oliver Collins of Siloam Springs, Arkansas.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Parson and children were in Friona Sunday afternoon to visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Scales.

The Parsons also visited with Mrs. Parson's sister, Mrs. Thomas Gibson, and family and a brother, Russell Scales, and family.

Beta Sig Rituals Scheduled Sunday

Chi Upsilon chapter of Beta Sigma Phi will hold spring rituals Sunday afternoon, April 25, in the home of Dr. and Mrs. Charles Nester, sponsors.

Conducting the formal candlelight ceremonies will be Mrs. Bob Henry, chapter president, assisted by Mrs. Jack Berry, vice-president.

Receiving pledge rituals will be Phyllis Bonnie.

Fall pledges of the chapter will be given the ritual of jewels degree. They include Mrs. Alvin Kuhlman, Mrs. Jim Whitfill, Mrs. Jimmy McHaney, and Mrs. Dan Hudson.

Receiving the ritual of affirmation will be Mrs. Jimmie Golden and Mrs. Sandra Glazner.

A bake sale, held by the chapter last week at Bellah's Super Market, netted proceeds of approximately $55 to go towards a scholarship for a graduating senior girl at Canyon High School.

The $100 scholarship offered for the first time this year, will be an annual project of the chapter. It has been named in memory--the "Billie Simms Scholarship."

Members participating in the sale were Mrs. Jimmie Golden, chairman, Mrs. Jack Berry, Mrs. Speck Benham, Mrs. Elmer Clement, Mrs. Sandra Glazner, Mrs. Bob Henry, Mrs. Johnnie Robinson, Mrs. Bob Sims, and Miss Cathy Brannon.

The scholarship will be presented at the annual awards assembly, held each May at Canyon High School. A special faculty committee will choose the recipient on scholarship, character, and need.

Friemels Hosts For Reception

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Friemel of Umbarger will be honored on their Fiftieth Wedding anniversary Sunday, April 25.

The open house and reception will be held from 3-5 o'clock Sunday afternoon, in the Parish Hall of St. Mary's Catholic Church, Umbarger.

At the same time, the Friemels' daughter, Sister Mary Madaleva, will observe her twenty-fifth jubilee.

The Friemels, who were married Feb. 15, 1915 in D'Hanis, are the parents of seven children, Mrs. Siegfried Bolte, A.R. Friemel, and Mrs. Bernard Wilhelm, all of Umbarger, George Friemel of Hawthorne, California, Sister Mary Madaleva of Slaton, Elmer of Waco and Mrs. Emma Odell of Borger.

They also have 27 grandchildren and eight great grandchildren.

All friends of the couple and of Sister Mary Madaleva are invited to attend the reception.

Stretching leather for glovemaking are from left, Mrs. Ray Metcalf, Mrs. Ralph Ruthart, and Mrs. Ed Bourn. The women, who have learned to make leather gloves in meetings of the West Side Home Demonstration Club, can stitch up a pair in just under a day.

Gisella Loeffler, Taos, N.M. artist, is shown with one of her creations, a hand embroidered patchwork quilt. She was a guest of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum Sunday afternoon during a reception held in her honor. An exhibit of Miss Loeffler's, featuring different art forms, especially appealing to children, is on view in Fine Arts Hall through April 30.

Jaycee Egg Hunt Draws 400 Sunday

Approximately 400 youngsters made a gleeful dash through Connor Park Sunday afternoon gathering up Easter eggs as fast as they could find them.

Sponsored by the Canyon Junior Chamber of Commerce, the egg hunt was held at 2 p.m. and within approximately four minutes the eggs were all tucked inside vari-colored baskets by the youngsters.

The Jaycee s hid 2,500 candy eggs for the afternoon hunt with 17 prizes being awarded to children finding the hard-boiled prize eggs.

Stuffed Easter bunnies were awarded as grand prizes to Melissa Cox, 2 years old, and Jerry Mariner, 12 years old.

The youngsters were divided into two age brackets including ages 1-6 and 7-12. Silver dollars were awarded to the prize winners in each division including Pam Sanford, Gary Lynn Tidwell, David Gidden, Mario Acosta, Charles Craig, Charles Peters, Randy Michael, Sandra Peters, Logan Anderson, Chris Tucker, Debbie Hales, Martin Moore, Cindy Chesheir, Becky Irlbeck and Greg Risner.

"This was our first year to sponsor the egg hunt, but we plan to make it an annual event," said Jack Clifton, Jaycee chairman.

Committee members assisting with the egg hunt were Howard Morris and Gerald Watson. Jaycee assistance was given Sunday afternoon by Wayne Edmondson, Bob Wilkinson, and Carl Miller who hid the assortment of candy eggs.

Parker's Niece Dies In Air Crash

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Baker and their two-year-old daughter died in an airplane crash April 19th near Baton Rouge, Louisiana.

Mrs. Baker was a niece of the J.O. Parkers of Canyon.

The couple lived in New Orleans, Louisiana and were flying their private plane. Cause of the crash has not been determined.

Funeral services for the family will be conducted in Tucumcari, New Mexico where the late Mrs. Baker's parents, Mr. and Mrs. I.W. Parker, reside.

Open House Slated For Davis Agency

An open house Sunday afternoon will highlight 19 years of business in Canyon for The Davis Agency.

The welcome mat will be out from 1-5 p.m. Sunday at the new office, 1619 Fourth Avenue.

The spacious structure houses the offices of Roscoe Davis and Bill Davis, owners of the real estate and insurance business.

The structure, which has bright ceramic tile enhancing the outside, has carpeting in the waiting room, reception area and the three offices. Mexican terrazzo is laid as the center hallway running the length of the building.

Walnut paneling is highlighted with ceramic tile and Japanese grass cloth on the walls of two offices.

Personal offices for Bill and Roscoe are near the front of the building with large windows overlooking the waiting room area.

In the back of the building another large office is available for customer use.

"We have the office for conveniece of adjustors and clients," the younger Davis explained.

A coffee room has been provided in the structure for use by customers and owners alike.

Five telephones are located throughout the offices to provide even more service to The Davis Agency customers.

A parking area for 12 cars lines the east side of the building, and parking is available on Fourth Avenue.

The Davises, and Larry Hooper, who has been with the firm for two years as real estate manager and policy writer, welcome the public to the open house Sunday afternoon.

"And we invite folks to come in any time during the day to look over the building," Bill said.

WARREN'S

STORE HOURS 8:00 AM TO 5:30 PM

Over 1,000 At Reception

Some 1,038 persons attended the reception Sunday honoring Gisella Loeffler, Taos, New Mexico artist.

Held at the Panhandle Plains Historical Museum, the reception preceded a look at Mrs. Loeffler's paintings which are currently on exhibit at the museum.

Mrs. Loeffler is a native of Hungary. Her paintings are noted for their appeal to children and will be on exhibit until May 1.

Boone McClure, museum curator, stated that the next exhibit to be featured will be works of Frank Hoffman. Approximately 100 paintings of Hoffman's western art will be exhibited during the month of May.

"This is the only museum where a public exhibit has been given of Hoffman's works," McClure explained. Hoffman was born in Chicago in 1888, and painted for Brown and Bigelow Calendar Company until his death in the late 1950's.

Mrs. Hoffman recently presented one of her husband's paintings to the museum in honor of President and Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson. The art has been appraised at a value of $50,000.

"Storm Cellar Safest"

Tornado Alerts Possible

"A tornado forecast has been issued for portions of the Texas Panhandle this afternoon, until 9 p.m. Observe all advisories."

If this mythical statement should become reality, as it well might during stormy days ahead, would you, as a citizen of Canyon, and your family, know what to do?

What precautions should I take, you might ask.

First, if you are near a tornado cellar and time permits, go. The only sure protection against tornadoes is in an underground shelter, noted Bill Sternenberg, past civil defense director for Canyon.

The shelter, if you have one, should be kept prepared for use. Adding a pick and shovel to the list of supplies for the shelter is also a wise idea, according to Sternenberg.

How about if you are on a hike or out in open country?

Since tornadoes usually move from southwest to northeast, move at right angles to the path of the tornado. The usual speed of a tornado on the ground is between 25 and 40 miles per hour.

If a tornado is directly southwest of you, and their is no time to escape, lie flat in the nearest depression, such as a culvert or ditch, Sternenberg said.

If a tornado alert should occur while you are in the city, immediately seek inside shelter, preferably in a strongly reinforced building. Stay away from windows, he added.

Safest place inside the home is the southwest corner. Basements usually offer the next best protection after storm cellars, but persons in homes without basements may wish to take cover under some type of heavy furniture against inside walls.

Sternenberg urged that window shades be drawn to protect against flying glass. Doors and windows on the sides of the house away from the tornado should be opened to help reduce damage from the vacuum caused when the tornado passes by.

What happens when a tornado is reported, say, on the ground near Buffalo Lake and Nazareth?

Immediately, a dispatcher at the sheriff's office would notify all Highway Patrol units in the area, advising them of the location. Three DPS units work out of the Canyon office. The units, assisted by sheriff's deputies, and local police officers, if it became necessary, would begin "tracking" the tornado.

Its location would be reported to the dispatcher, who would relay the information to weather bureau officials and other officers.

In the event that the tornado appeared headed for Canyon, tornado alert would be sounded.

At present, the alert is eight blasts on the fire siren--serving as a take-cover warning for any impending disaster. Six blasts on the siren are an all-clear signal, said Joe Rice, Canyon fire captain.

All persons in the danger area are urged to keep tuned to the local radio or television stations for the latest weather advisories. A small transistor radio might be kept handy in case of power failure.

Now, what happen if a twister should strike the area?

All law enforcement officers--Canyon police department, sheriff's deputies, and DPS officers--would go on immediate duty, under a central authority, local officers noted.

The officers would be prepared to handle emergencies of all kinds, from transporting injured to hospitals, reuniting families, to patrolling against looting.

Persons having station wagons might be called upon to transport persons to emergency hospitals in the event of mass casualties, according to Sternenberg.

All in all, a total of 17 units can be dispatched from Randall County sheriff's office. In addition to law enforcement vehicles, these units include a doctor, ambulance, and wrecker.

Then too, if the local dispatching station were to be destroyed, all dispatching could be done from Amarillo. All sheriff's offices and units in the state operate on the same frequency.

If a tornado should threaten Canyon, or surrounding area, remember above all--keep calm.

Getting excited will not help, and some persons have been killed by running into streets or back into the path of the storm, added Sternenberg.

Remember also, the chances that a tornado will strike the area are very slight, although Texas has more tornadoes than any other state in the United States.

However these simple emergency precautions should be kept in mind, "just in case."

Best Play

"Elizabeth the Queen," presented at the District 5-B Interscholastic League play contest recently, won first place and will represent Happy and the district at regional contest in Lubbock April 22. Cast members include seated in front, Dwaine Grantham; standing from left, David Womack, James Haley, Dan Rahlfs and Jim McManigal; and seated from left, Maria Hopper, Angela Airhart, Jerry Don Danner and Larry Stevens. Miss Airhart was chosen Best Actress at district contest, and Danner was selected as Best Actor.

The ramp, located on the southeast side of the lake off Farm Road 1714, will be large enough for three boats to be unloaded at the same time. A spur from FM 1714 to the parking area and the ramp is under the construction also.

Boat-Ski Club Meets Sunday

Panhandle Boat and Ski Club will have a work day Sunday at Buffalo Lake.

A fishing contest will be sponsored by the club beginning Saturday evening at 6 p.m. and concluding at 12 noon Sunday. The top fishermen will be awarded trophies for their catches.

At 8:30 a.m. Sunday a slalom tournament is scheduled to be held.

A membership contest and hamburger fry will be held at noon. No entry fee will be charged for the program of events.

Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Cooper of Roscoe and Mr. and Mrs. A.B. Cox of Plainview were visitors in the J.A. Hill home Sunday. Cooper and Mrs. Cox were graduates of Roscoe High School in 1910 where Dr. Hill was superintendent of schools. The two men had not met since the night of Cooper's graduation nearly 55 years ago.

NEUROSIS AND PSYCHOSIS WHAT DO THEY MEAN?

Neurosis is defined as a mild emotional disorder in which you might experience feelings of anxiety, make compulsive acts and usually have physical complaints without specific evidence of disease. Psychosis is any major, severe form of mental illness.

Most everybody has a neurosis occasionally and sometimes a mild tranquilizer is prescribed to help ease the stress. With a psychosis, treatment calls for strong medication in many cases. There are hundreds of drugs available for mild or severe mental problems. We carry them all in our prescription stocks.

Palo Duro Canyon Services Draw 1500

The story of Easter, told in tableaus from the Bible, was presented at Sunrise services held Sunday in Pioneer Amphitheatre, Palo Duro Canyon.

Officers and members of Canyon Christian Youth Council, headed by John Brantley, were in charge of the annual services.

Park officials said approximately 1500 persons attended the early morning services. Gate count was 321 automobiles.

The production began in semi-darkness, highlighted by spotlights focused on different scenes. Sound was used to intensify the mood of the production.

Assisting with the production were Mr. and Mrs. W.A. Moore, who served as directors, Erin Wertenberger, costuming, Joe Batson, sound, and Rod Smith, lighting.

Appearing in the tableaus were Lorna Dunnagan, Jo Troth, Sue Johnson, Ricky Wilson, Rodger Wilson, Martha Low, Richard Calder, Charles Starnes, Gary Cook, Gayland Gatten, Rob Barnard, Gary Brundige, John Brantley, Susan Brantley, and Richard Gray.

Narrating the services were Rod Smith, Gene Murray, Rob Barnard, Charles Starnes, Lou Ann Cowart, Rose Ellen Parker and Lil Cowart.

"We want to thank everyone who helped us with the production," said Lil Cowart, "especially the Moores and Joe Batson. We are really indebted to them."

Scenes for the services were compiled by Lil and Lou Ann Cowart.

HHS Students To Regional

The 440 yard relay team placed second with team members including Wayne Stevens, Gary Culp, Jim McManigal and Bill Vernon. Dan Rahlfs was alternate.

Stevens placed first in the 880 yard dash and Culp was second in the 100 yard dash.

Lloyd Rahlfs won first in the 12-pound shot put; Larry Stevens ran third in the mile run, and Ronnie Wilson was third in broad jumping.

Hobie McManigal and Alice Womack each took first in tennis singles, and the girls tennis doubles team won first. Dixie McGehee and Sharon Johnson composed the doubles team.

Spray Propazine to control weeds and grasses in sorghum.

One spray of Propazine* 80W herbicide controls most annual broadleaf weeds and grasses in sorghum for the entire season.

This can reduce or even eliminate the need for cultivating because Propazine takes care of problem weeds for you. Propazine is particularly effective on carelessweed (pigweed) and annual morning glory.

Sprayed before weeds and sorghum are up and activated by moisture, Propazine gives your crop an entire season without weed competition for moisture and soil nutrients. The result? Higher yields and more profit for you.

Just about 2½ feet wide – that's all the space you need for an electric clothes dryer (some models as little as 27 inches) and that's a pretty short clothes line, you'll agree. Too, the cost is low – the total cost – just 5¢ a load and if you dried a load every day that's $1.50 a month. And remember, this includes power for the tumbler and blower as well as gentle electric heat for drying.

BY MRS. J.W. WESLEY

(Delayed)

Mary Jo Sullivan visited with Mr. and Mrs. J.W. Wesley last Tuesday. She is our former pastor's wife.

M.J. Wesley of Peyton, Colorado, visited Tuesday with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. G.E. Wesley.

Mr. and Mrs. J.W. Wesley went to Lubbock Thursday of last week to be with their daughter, Othell Whitson, who was ill in St. Mary's Hospital, Lubbock. They visited with their grandson and family, Thursday and Saturday nights, and then went to Brownfield and visited with their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. E.E. Wesley and Mr. D.L. Whitson and Sonny and Lynda.

Essie Barnard was painfully burned when she tripped and fell on the heater. She received third degree burns and has been confined to Neblett hospital. Her daughter, Maxine Hardeman of Temple came to care for her.

We received light hail and one-half inch of rain recently.

Othell Whitson was released from St. Mary's hospital last Wednesday and is to return in two weeks for x-rays.

Charles Ray Wesley helped Mr. and Mrs. G.E. Wesley build a gate Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. C.R. Wesley visited with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Wesley over the past week end.

We were sorry to hear of the tragic death of Mr. Cosby, father of Roscoe Cosby. He was helping his son on the old Cook place. Our sympathies are with the bereaved.

Mrs. Bowie Wesley was honored with a wedding shower April 1 in the John Patterson home.

Tongue and Thimble club met April 2 with Hope Wilson. Six members were present for the gathering.

Mrs. J. W. Wesley and Charles visited Thursday morning with Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Wesley.

Richard Evans visited his eye doctor recently for a checkup.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Dixon and family entertained his brother's family, the Elmer Dixons, of Dimmitt recently.

"Military And Civilian Benefits"

ROTC Offers Dual Career

BY PHYLLIS BONNIE

". . .that the Army goes rolling along."

So go the words of the official song of the United States Army, of which West Texas State University men students learn during their experience with ROTC.

ROTC? What is ROTC? Officially, its known as the Reserve Officers' Training Corps, a part of life at West Texas State since spring, 1952.

At that time, a contract for the establishing of an ROTC unit was let, between the college and the Army.

June 15, 1952---the department was officially established by Department of the Army.

During the first year, maximum enrollment was 251. Facilities available for use were seemingly temporary, and inadequate.

In the years since its founding, facilities have grown to their present size, including a building for seven instructor officers, and seven enlisted men, separate classroom building, a rifle range and drill field.

The West Texas ROTC unit was one of 25 units established to test a "pew" idea in training---general Military Science rather than specific branch instruction.

This year, ROTC units throughout the United States underwent a basic change---offering an opportunity to college men to receive commissions after only two years of on-campus ROTC training.

The traditional program, MS I, II, III, IV required four years. This included six-week summer camp between the junior and senior years.

ROTC has a scholarship program designed to offer financial assistance to outstanding men in the four-year Army ROTC program who have interest in the Army as a career.

Each scholarship provides free tuition, textbooks, and laboratory fees in addition to paying a retainer fee of $50 per month for the period that of the scholarship.

Two years of ROTC, once compulsory, are now optional. Men students may elect either one hour of physical education or ROTC each semester.

"ROTC enables a young man to earn a commission as an officer at the same time he works toward an academic degree," said Col. Henry L. Calder, professor of Military Science at WTSU.

"He can achieve the combination of a degree in his chosen field and a commission as a second lieutenant, thus making the most of his potential for both a civilian and a military profession", Calder continued.

"ROTC helps to develop qualities such as mental discipline and physical stamina, and teaches a man how to gain and hold the respect of others."

Classroom instruction in US military involvements, drill field instruction, and varied extra curricular activities are all part of the program offered cadets.

Of the approximately 750 cadets now enrolled in basic or advanced course ROTC, more than 100 participate in one of the department's extra curricular activities.

Band leads the list in membership numbers, with 44. The band plays for all drills, in addition to marching in parades around the area.

Scabbard and Blade, the honor group of advanced course students counts 30 members.

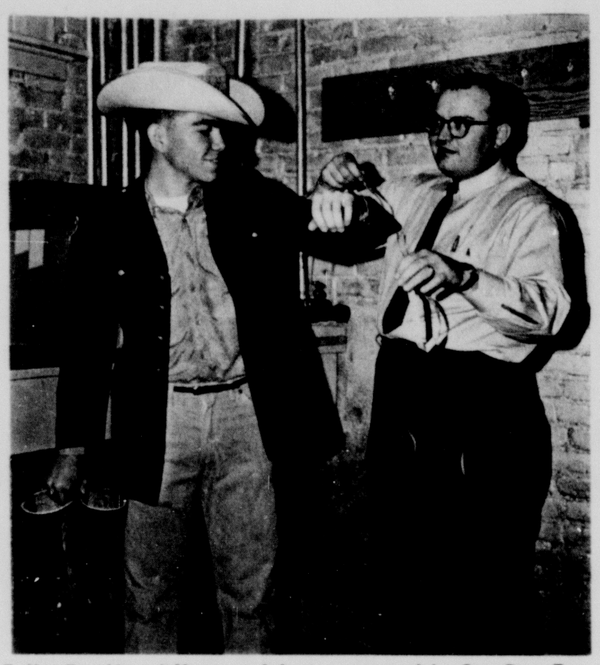

Sam Houston Rifles drill team, which participates in local parades and marches at WT football games, has a total of 26 members.

Members in rifle team, undefeated in intercollegiate competition this semester, total 14. The elite counter-guerilla group has 21 members.

By participating in these activities, as well as electing ROTC as a subject, the student receives an opportunity to develop leadership and character toward future service of his country and community, according to Capt. James Rapkoch.

Officers stationed with the unit include Col. Calder, Lt. Col. R.P. Muir, Maj. Harry McGinn, Capt. James H. Cook, Capt. William Johnson, and Capt. Rapkoch.

Enlisted personnel are M/Sgt. Maurice Smith, S/Sgt. Howard Bryant, S/Sgt. David Bullion, S/Sgt. Gene Butterfield, S/Sgt. Amos L. Sutton, Sfc Paul Weimer and Sfc. A. M. Choate.

Eagle Booster Club Honors Coach Webb

The Canyon Eagle Booster Club presented Coach E. J. 'Jeep' Webb with a farewell gift certificate this week.

Presented by club president, T.H. Lair, the certificate was in honor of the coach's work with the ball teams of Canyon High School.

Coach Webb recently resigned his post for a position with the Pampa Public Schools.

Girl Scouts

Girl Scout troop 9, patrols 1 and 2, worked with Mrs. R. B. Gist, Jr., in learning to do applique at their April 14 meeting.

The regular meeting was held in First Methodist Church. Kathy Gist served refreshments to Viki Cooper, Judy Farmer, Marsha Hager, Rebecca Haley, Rena Hillier, Cindy Kuhlman, Mary Ann Lindsey, Connie Ormsby, Marilyn Schuette, Jeanett Thomas, Jan Westfall, and Deane Williams.

Next meeting will be May 5, when girls will complete work on their Needlecraft badges.

Girl Scout troop 14 worked on their dancing badge at their meeting April 14 with Mrs. Patton, troop leader.

Sharon Lumry served refreshments to Debra Patton, Darlene Floyd, Jo Beth Warren, Cecelia Winn, Shanon Hare, and D'Aun Revel, following opening exercises. Next troop meeting will be April 28 at 3:35 p.m. in Mrs. Patton's home.

TORNADO
Safety Rules

TO KNOW WHAT TO DO WHEN A TORNADO IS APPROACHING MAY MEAN THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN LIFE AND DEATH!

I If you are near a tornado cellar:

When time permits, go to a tornado cellar, cave or underground excavation which should have an air outlet to help equalize the air pressure. It should be kept fit for use, free from water, gas or debris; and preferably equipped with pick and shovel. THERE IS NO UNIVERSAL PROTECTION AGAINST TORNADOES EXCEPT UNDERGROUND EXCAVATIONS.

II If you are in open country:

1. Move at right angles to the tornado's path. Tornadoes usually move ahead at about 25 to 40 miles per hour.
2. If there is no time to escape, lie flat in the nearest depression such as a ditch or ravine.

III If in a city or town.

1. Seek inside shelter, preferably in a strongly reinforced building. STAY AWAY FROM WINDOWS!
2. In homes: The corner of the basement toward the tornado usually offers greatest safety, particularly in frame houses. People in houses without basements can sometimes be protected by taking cover under heavy furniture against inside walls. Doors and windows on the sides of the house away from the tornado may be opened to help reduce damage to the building.
3. Standing against the inside wall on a lower floor of an office building offers some protection.

IV If in schools:

1. In city areas: If school building is of strongly reinforced construction, stay inside, away from windows, remain near an inside wall on the lower floors when possible. AVOID AUDITORIUMS AND GYMNASIUMS with large, poorly-supported roofs!
2. In rural schools that do not have strongly reinforced construction, remove children and teachers to a ravine or ditch if storm shelter is not available.

V If in factories and industrial plants:

On receiving a tornado warning, a lookout should be posted to keep safety officials advised of the tornado's approach. Advance preparation should be made for moving workers to sections of the plant offering the greatest protection.

VI Keep calm. It will not help to get excited. People have been killed by running out into streets and by turning back into the path of a tornado. Even though a warning is issued, chances of a tornado striking one's home or location are very slight. Tornadoes cover such a small zone, as a rule, that relatively only a few places in a warned area are directly affected. You should know about tornadoes though, "just in case."

VII Keep turned to your radio or television station for latest tornado advisory information. Do not call the Weather Bureau, except to report a tornado, as your individual request may tie up telephone lines urgently needed to receive special reports or to relay advisories to radio and television stations for dissemination to thousands in the critical area.

It looks like a big car. And is—by almost any standard you want to apply.

Width? Nobody builds a car as much as one inch wider. Length? It grew three inches this year. Roominess? Every closed model's got three inches more shoulder room, front and rear, and more leg and foot room up front too. Luxury? Nice little touches like the look of mellow walnut across the Impala's instrument panel. And big touches. Like the fineness of the same Body by Fisher workmanship that makes some of America's most expensive cars look so expensive. How about the ride? Chevrolet engineers took the Jet-smooth one and smoothed it out even more this year. Also made it more stable by widening the wheel stance. Price? That's where Chevrolets fall way short of the other big expensive-looking cars. But we wouldn't have it any other way. Would you?

One last question: How soon can you make a good spring buy on a Chevrolet? One last answer: Just as soon as you can get down to your Chevrolet dealer's.

Groundbreaking Set For Hidden Falls

Groundbreaking ceremonies for buildings at Hidden Falls Ranch will be held Sunday, April 25, at 3 p.m. at the ranch site.

All persons are invited to attend the ceremonies, according to Mrs. John Staat, wife of the camp director.

The camp is located near Wayside community, southeast of Canyon. It may be reached by taking US 87 south past Ralph Switch to the Ceta Canyon turnoff, turning left, and continuing for 20 miles. Another route is east on State 217 to the Washington Street road, turning south, and going to the Wayside road, then turning left.

Either route will be plainly marked by signs, according to Mrs. Staat.

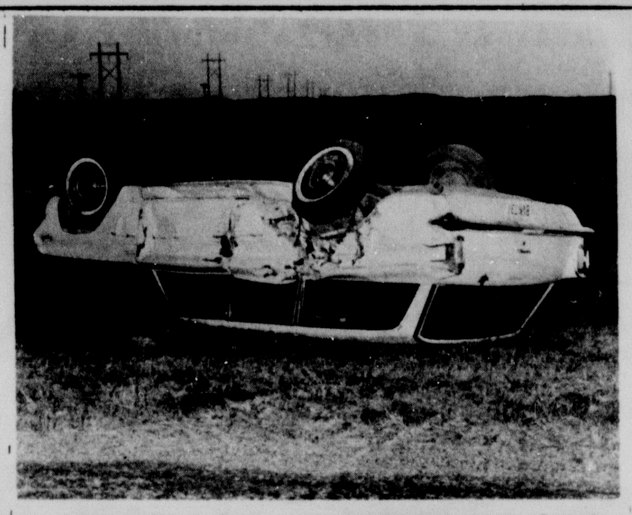

Included in plans for the buildings at the camp are cabins, to house 96 campers per week, a dining hall, general store, administration building, and infirmary. Activities for the interdenominational camp will include horseback riding.

Present plans call for a pool to be built later, probably for next year's camp.

The camp will teach no specific church doctrine, but will have a Bible inspiration each day for a short time. Other activities will include a rodeo each week.

The one-week sessions will be held for nine weeks this summer, beginning June 13. Seven weeks of camp will be devoted to 8-12 year old youths, with two weeks for 13-18 year olds. Brochures for the sessions will be available at the groundbreaking.

Members of the board of directors for the camp include, Riley Troth, chairman, Keith Jones, R.E. Barnard, and Cliff Abbott.

Joe Moore, 16 of Canyon, escaped serious injury Saturday April 10 when his stationwagon collided with a pickup driven by Pete Fischbacher on the Amarill E-Way service road north of Canyon. The accident, which occurred at the Hunsley Hills road intersection did extensive damage to the pickup and totally destroyed the stationwagon.

Mrs. Oren Fisher Featured By AMBUC

Mrs. Oren Fisher of Canyon was featured on the front cover of the January-February issue of "The AMBUC", official publication of the American Business Clubs.

Mrs. Fisher, mother of three, has taught and served as director of the Mentally Retarded Training Center in Amarillo for five years.

The story describes the school which was opened in March of 1956 through efforts of the Palo Duro AMBUCs. The school which is currently a unit of the Amarillo Public School System was first opened in a three-room residence owned by the Line Avenue Baptist Church.

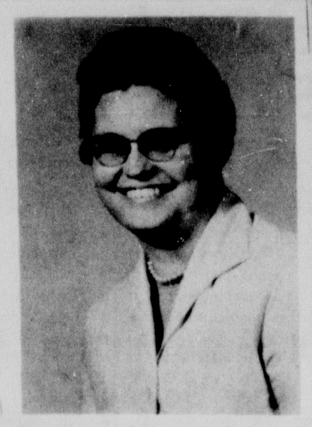

"The school might be called the 'house that Jack built'," says Mrs. Fisher explaining that funds for the school were raised almost entirely by pancake suppers sponsored by the club.

Within four years the Palo Duro AMBUCs had built their own schoolhouse through pancake supper funds and donated labor, and some 24 mentally retarded children were attending. The enrollment has increased each year with 37 children attending this year.

The school is presently being enlarged with four new classrooms, a cafeteria with kitchen and two additional restrooms.

"Each time the school is enlarged our enrollment increases," says Mrs. Fisher.

Mrs. Fisher has served as director of the school for five years. Her three daughters attend schools in Canyon including Ann, who is a sophomore at West Texas State University, and Janie and Kay, who are enrolled at Canyon High School.

Final Days For Clinic

Today and tomorrow, April 22 and 23, are the final days of Canyon's annual rabies vaccination clinic.

Hours for the clinic are from 6 until 8 each evening at Markham Veterinary Clinic, on the Hereford Highway.

Cost of the vaccine for each pet is $2. The usual rate is $3 per animal.

All pets should receive the vaccine at least once each year, according to Dr. Joe Markham, veterinarian. Pet owners are urged to take advantage of the reduction in rates.

Canyon Man Graduates Boot Camp

Marine Private LaRoyce B. Walters, son of Mr. and Mrs. Logan B. Walters, Canyon, completed recruit training March 17 at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot, San Diego, Calif.

Marine recruits undergo more than 100 hours of physical conditioning, spend more than 80 hours learning how to drill, and devote three weeks to rifle and pistol training in their 11-week training program.

LaROYCE B. WALTERS

In the physical training, the recruits run, lift logs, climb ropes, conquer three different obstacle courses, progress through a variety of body-building exercises, swim and participate in organized games. To measure their progress they take four strength measuring tests.

Following graduation he reported to Camp Pendleton, Calif., for advanced infantry training.

Clubs Plan City Pool In Happy

Happy may have a swimming pool within a year.

That's the goal of the Happy Junior Chamber of Commerce and the Lions Club.

Both clubs are cooperating in an attempt to raise $18,000 within a year to build a swimming pool for the town.

Committees from each organization have been set up to work on the construction, financing and planning of the project.

Lions Club president-elect Edward Womack said this week, "We have been talking about the swimming pool for more than a year, and we hope to get it completed within a year."

Womack pointed out that money will be raised for the pool through donations by individuals and clubs.

"We will begin construction on the pool as soon as we have enough money," Womack explained.

A definite site for the project has not been selected, but plans call for the location to be on the east end of Main Street.

Kraus Family Has Visitors

Overnight guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred A. Kraus, Jr. last Monday were Mr. and Mrs. Peter Ostman and children, Randy and Meg, of Raymond, Washington.

Mrs. Ostam, the former Violet Kraus, is an aunt of Mr. Kraus and the two had not seen each other for a period of 12 years. The Ostman family was enroute to Fort Worth to spend the Easter vacation with relatives.

Soap Box Derby Sign-Up Saturday

The annual 'soap box derby' registration being sponsored by the Canyon Junior Chamber of Commerce will be conducted Saturday, April 24.

The area race will be staged in Amarillo in August. Registration for the area race requires that a boy be 11 years old by August 1, 1965 and not over 15 by the same date.

"We had one boy to register at last Saturday's sign-up," said D. W. Edmondson, member of the local soap box derby committee.

The second registration, Saturday, will be staged from 8:30 until 10:30 a.m. at the Village Drive In with Jackie Whitley, Jaycee member, in charge.

Late registration slips will be available from Wayne Edmondson through April 31st.

"Boys must make their own racers by themselves, and each boy must have a business sponsor," said Edmondson. The car and driver must not weigh more than 250 pounds at the time of the August area race.

A $500 bond will be presented to the winner of the Amarillo race as well as an expense-paid trip to Akron, Ohio for the national soap box derby races.

Former CHS Boy Selected To Top Squad

Jerry Nickell, son of W.M. Nickell of Branson, Colorado, was recently named a member of all-conference basketball team in Fisher's Peak league.

Jerry's twin brother, Gerry, was also a member of the Branson A squad. The two boys also served as president and vice-president of their sophomore class.

JERRY LEE NICKELL

The boys' father, W.M. Nickell, served as freshman coach for the 1964 Canyon Eagles. He is now superintendent at Branson.

They are the grandsons of Mrs. Zora Campbell of Canyon.

Last Rites Held For Mrs. Sims

Funeral services for Mrs. Euda Estelle Sims were conducted Monday morning at 10 o'clock in LaGrone Funeral Chapel.

Rev. Newton Starnes, pastor of the First Methodist Church in Canyon, officiated.

Burial followed in Dreamland Cemetery.

Pallbearers included D. B. Lowes, C.E. Winn, R.B. Allen, Bill Davis, Walter Cranmer, and Jack Downing.

MRS. ESTELLE SIMS

Mrs. Sims died in LaCasa Canyon Convalescent Home Saturday. She had lived in Canyon five years, moving here from Vernon.

Mrs. Sims was born in Alabama August 24, 1889. She married James Wesley Sims in July of 1908 in Temple.

Mr. Sims died March 23, 1965 in Canyon.

Member of the Primitive Baptist Church, Mrs. Sims was a housewife.

Survivors include two sons, M.B. Sims of Canyon and Herman Sims of Houston; one sister, Mrs. W.C. Ford of Temple, two grandsons, J.W. Sims of Canyon and John Marvin of Canyon, and two great grandchildren.

Egg Hunt Fetes WT Youngsters

Youngsters of West Texas State faculty were feted April 14 with an annual Easter Egg Hunt, sponsored by Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity.

Approximately 30 children participated in the hunt, held in Connor Park.

In the pre-school group, David Harbin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Harbin received the award for finding the most eggs.

The prize egg was found by Jimmy Green, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Green.

Mary Ann Heiman discovered the prize egg in the school-age group. She is the daughter of Mrs. Monica Heiman.

Mr. and Mrs. Si Elliott and daughter, Willa Jane, of Happy visited during the week end with Mr. and Mrs. L.S. Johnston.

Mrs. Elliott's mother, Mrs. Helen Bennett, of Phoenix, Arizona also visited with the group.
